Local and Personal.

HE WOULD NOT ADVERTISE, BUT SOLOQUISED THUS:

I wonder why these goods of ours, Have so long lain on the shelf; We have been here for weary hours, So lonesome all by ourself.

Those notes are due for these goods, Dear me, what shall we do! I've a notion to go to the woods, I feel so dreadful blue.

All with dust they are covered o'er, So long they've lain untouched; No customers come to our store, I'll tell you 'tis too much.

We'll have to close out very soon, So unlucky we have been; We may hold till the first of June, And then won't we feel green?

No one knows what we will do, When they do close us out; Perhaps Tom will go out to hew, And Ike will go his route.

We have failed while others swim, They are so sly as a fox; Don't that beat you Uncle Jim, We'll have to plow an ox.

Uncle said Advertise, you fools, And let the people know; You are ignorant as a lot of mules To shut yourself up so.

Who knows what you have to sell? You'd better close your doors; People who prosper always tell What is in their stores.

So off at once and Advertise, And you won't have long to wait; This will show that you are wise, So off before it is too late.

But Uncle, we have lain so long Our energies are surely paralyzed; We are too weak to raise the song, I think we must be hypnotized.

Our rent is long since past due, Our bills come thick and fast; Yonder comes the man to put us through, The Sheriff's coming at last.

Merchants now open your eyes, And ever be on the alert; Would you flourish, Advertise, If you fail it will surely hurt.

AN UNFORTUNATE AFFAIR.

On last Saturday afternoon a difficulty arose between Mr. R. U. Harrell and Judge P. H. Carter over some trivial affair, which resulted in Harrell shooting Carter fatally.

Mr. Carter lived until Sunday afternoon, and was buried Tuesday morning in the city cemetery; his remains were followed to the grave by a large concourse of friends, the Masons performing the burial rites.

Judge Carter was a prominent naval stores manufacturer having an interest in different turpentine stills around here; being a partner of Col. O'Brien, Capt. A. J. Gay, and others; and a partner of Capt. J. Gay in the livery stable business here, and was an esteemed citizen with many friends.

He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss.

Mr. Harrell was a livery stable man also. He was arrested just after the shooting; a preliminary hearing was held Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning and the result was that Mr. Harrell was charged with manslaughter, and required to give bond in the sum of $3,000, which he made during the afternoon of Wednesday.

The sad affair is regretted by the friends of both parties, and we hope it will be ages before an occurrence of this kind happens in our town again.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

Last Wednesday morning Mr. Etheridge came to town early, seemingly as well as usual. He went to the garden of Mr. J. J. Williams to get a mess of turnips; while there he was stricken with a pain in the back of his head; he hastened to the store of Campbell & Butler, where he stopped; Dr. Wilson was called to see him; gave some medicine then went to call on another patient. In a few minutes he grew worse, and was dead in half an hour from the time he was first stricken.

The deceased was a poor man, with a large family dependent upon him for support. He was a good, quiet citizen, and one of the hardest working men in our community. The family have the sympathy of the whole town.

Morris, who has placed it on this run, seeing the business demands such service. She will make regular weekly trips and suitably constructed to navigate Holmes river successfully.

COMMUNICATED.

Orange Hill, Jan. 10, 1899

DEAR MR. EDITOR:

Just a few lines to state that Dr. B. F. Saye has returned to Florida, and will make Orange Hill his permanent home. As you likely remember, he moved from here four years ago, after a stay of about a year. The Dr. while here made many friends and gained the confidence of all with whom he had dealings.

If you can find room in your paper to mention his return and to state that he has come with business intent, it will be highly appreciated. Thanking you in advance, I am, yours truly,

R. F. SCARLETT.

Orange Hill, Jan. 10, 1899.

MR. EDITOR:

We folks out here are glad, glad, O! how glad; we are happy I can't tell how much we feel good somehow but I can't explain our feelings; I don't know what has come over us. I don't think we are dreaming, if we are I hope it will always be a dream and that all our dreams will be as good. I hardly know what has got our excitement so high, or aroused us to such joy, but I believe its this way, in fact, since I came to think of it I know it is: Last Saturday Dr. Saye and wife, from Georgia, arrived at Orange Hill. You can't imagine how much surprised, or how glad we were. Dr. Saye is a good physician and a good man. He lived among us two or three years, once, and we all love him and his wife dearly. His wife is of the finest material, kind and friendly with every one, and she meets all with a cheerful word. She has already joined our Sunday school and we feel sure will help us all she can.

They have been living in Georgia for the past two or three years, but we are informed they are going to locate here permanently; if it is true we gladly welcome them, and feel sure that our community is greatly benefited by their presence. The sick folks are already getting better, for they know he will cure them. We do not think two people anywhere can be found who will exceed Dr. Saye and his estimable wife. We hope they will find us to be good neighbors, and above all true friends.

HOW TO PREVENT PNEUMONIA.

You are perhaps aware that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of gripple. During the epidemic of gripple a few years ago when so many cases resulted in pneumonia, it was observed that the attack was never followed by that disease when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was used. It counteracts any tendency of a cold or lagrippe to result in that dangerous disease. It is the best remedy in the world for bad colds and gripple. Every bottle warranted. For sale by Patrick Bros.

LA GRIPPE SUCCESSFULLY TREATED

"I have just recovered from the second attack of la grippe this year," says Mr. Jas. A. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexia, Texas. "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I think with considerable success, only being in bed a little over two days against ten days for the former attack. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy, as I had to go to bed in about six hours after being 'struck' with it, while in the first case I was able to attend to business about two days before getting 'down.'
